

Collection Partners Program

Information for schools, libraries, daycares, community centres and events

What is it?

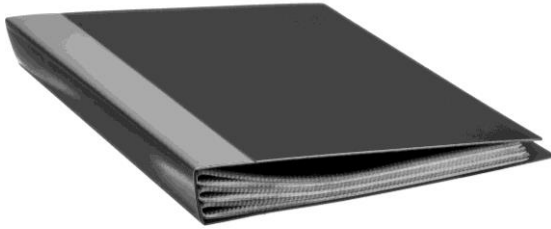

Our Collection Partners Program is the network of organizations where families can drop off kids' art and contribute to our archival collection for preservation. Participation is free of charge.

Participating organizations can have their logos and website links displayed on our website.

Three easy steps to participate

1. Confirm participation with start and end dates
2. Get our art portfolio with flyers and send photo
3. We will pick up art from portfolio, you start refill.
